The Honorable William A. M. Burden

Dear Bill:

When we met the other day at the French Embassy I told you how much I appreciated your good letter of October 5 about my retirement. I just wanted to add this note to tell you how grateful I am for what you said in that letter.

As I told you, our plans for the future are still indefinite but there is a good chance that we will be eventually returning to New York, although I hope to keep - for a time at least - our house in Washington. I should like to add that seeing you in action as Ambassador to Belgium during the critical days of the Congo, I felt the highest admiration for the thoroughness with which you approached the task and the clearness of vision you had in appraising all the problems involved.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
